AUCTION SALE IS BOOMING

It requires something pretty good to draw people to an ordinary sale of goods, but the M. W. WIARD AUCTION SALE is drawing them like hot cakes.

Mr. German, the man who came here from California to conduct the sale says: "I like this place. It seems to me to be one of the most charming places I was ever in. The people are all right. The town is all right, and to tell you the truth I am thinking seriously of coming here to live."

"When I came here and looked over the BIG WIARD STOCK TO BE SOLD, I thought that the place was too small to handle it, but the way it has moved off has been a surprise to me. I have already made some remittances from the proceeds, and I believe that I shall be able to CLOSE OUT THE STOCK AT PRICES THAT WILL MAKE EVERY ONE SIT UP AND TAKE NOTICE. The longer the sale runs, THE CHEAPER THE GOODS CAN BE KNOCKED DOWN, and that is saying a good deal, for MANY FINE BARGAINS HAVE BEEN HAD AND MORE ARE TO BE HAD.

"One thing that surprises me is the jolly nature of the people that come to these sales. They sit there and listen and you would think they were paying no attention, but just put up an article that is GOOD VALUE FOR TWICE WHAT IS BID ON IT and see them grab it.

"Several times when I thought I would get a little extra out of an article, these people have taken it at such a low price that I hated to let it go, but what am I to do?

"The creditors want their money. I came here to get it for them. EVERY ARTICLE OF JEWELRY, DIAMONDS, WATCHES, SILVER, PLATED WARE, CUT GLASS, STATIONERY, BOOKS, WRITING PAPER, PICTURES, FRAMES, WALL PAPER, everything will be sacrificed.

"The prizes have caused a good deal of comment, too and I have been let in a bit on those, for I am unable to control the drawing, and some fine things have slipped out on a winning ticket. I shall keep up my two daily sessions one at 2:30 p. m. and one at 7:30 p. m. UNTIL THE STOCK IS SOLD OUT. Meanwhile I am looking for a place to live, as I can handle my business as well from Carson City as I can from San Diego. I guess it is going some when a San Diego man wants to move to some other city, eh?"
